A piano recital by Kelvin Loh. Kelvin Loh started his musical studies at the age of 4. In 2010 he obtained a Licentiate Diploma of Trinity College London (LTCL); a Silver medal in the ASIA International Piano Academy Competition in Korea in September 2009 and was a finalist in the 2010 Roland Piano Festival in both the Piano Duet and Pop & Jazz categories. He recently performed with renown soprano Sarah Bowers at the 'International Connections' concert hosted by the ArtEz conservatoire in Netherlands. More recently he has released his debut album 'Journey Through Time'(2011); and is soon to complete his training at the Birmingham Conservatoire. Kelvin also plays at important occasions such as weddings <http://kelvinsylk.weebly.com/biography.html>

Lion Dancing and Kung Fu Demonstration by Seven Star Praying Mantis. Do you know that the lion dance combines art, history and Kung Fu moves? Normally the performers are Kung Fu practitioners. Every kind of move has a specific musical rhythm. The music follows the moves of the lion: the drum follows the lion; the cymbals and the gong follow the drum player! <http://www.sevenstarmantis.co.uk/1.html>

Singing and Taiji Fan Dancing by the Nottingham Chinese Community Association. Based in old Basford, NCCA will present beautiful Chinese sounds and their famous Taiji Fan Dancing. The Nottingham Chinese Community Association (NCCA) aims to share Chinese culture and art with people living in Nottinghamshire Basfordcnna@yahoo.co.uk
